

Flight Lieutenant AT Kishore is currently COO of Paramount Exhibitors, currently embarked upon 108 tech expo across nation (IITEXPO.COM). AT KISHORE brings with him Indian Air force Aeronautical Engg Domain Skills along with his long service at Bell Labs innovations Lucent Technologies. He has contributed immensely for growth of CDMA Technologies globally from Currently known firm Nokia networks before it's merger (Alcatel Lucent). He has delivered several International key notes on Session initiation protocol, And Wireless as well as Optic Fiber Technologies He is passionate about UAV Industries Has been nurturing youth of India in various programs, NiTi Aayog and Atal Innovation Mission, Smart India Hackathons to name a few He is on smart city advisory committees of IEEE , Senior member of professional IEEE. He has a patent to his credit. Has Authored a book chapter Has been guiding universities as mentor, besides being a mentor of change, and also start up accelerator. Current product development is in Tethered UAV Has long Association with Bureau of Indian Standards has resulted in bringing up standards for UAV during pandemic days and continuing to participate in standards at Robotics and Block-chain and edge computing for IEEE